Masters Prize – Prize of the Federation Wallonia Brussels

Jean-Louis Hurlin (France)

Jean-Louis Hurlin's work is, on one level, very simple and yet each piece has a poetic silence and intensity to it.

The maker uses the traditional technique of damas steel in a very contemporary way.

Special commendation of the jury:

Bruno Romanelli (United Kingdom)

Like ancient objects frozen in ice, Romanelli's works, beautifully and subtly reveal the inner form through the exterior shape.

Young Talents Prize – Prize of the World Crafts Council–Europe

Flora Vagi (Hongrie)

Flora Vagi builds and layers her work using various materials (wood, recycled books, ...) and processes to create what appears to be fragile yet robust objects.
